

---

---

Modify MBA Article 53.A. as follows (contract language is in quotes; new text is underlined; deletions are lined through):

“ARTICLE 53 - FINANCIAL INFORMATION

A. GENERAL

Within sixty (60) days of a request by the Guild, ~~the~~ the Company shall make available for inspection by the Guild all ~~the financial terms of contracts documents, including electronic records,~~ relevant to the determination of the accuracy of any payments due to a writer pursuant to this Agreement and the records showing the receipts and deductions to be accounted for. (For example, if the writer is to receive twenty-five percent (25%) of the Company's net receipts from publishing the writer's screenplay, the Company must make available for inspection by the Guild the financial terms of the agreement with the publisher and its records with respect to the receipts from the publisher.) The Guild shall have the right, at reasonable times, to examine all such records at whatever place or places such records are customarily kept by the Company. If the Guild requests ~~that it be sent an extract of such financial terms, and if such information is not extensive in nature,~~ copies of such documents, the Company will forward ~~such extract~~them, without making it necessary for the Guild to send a representative to the offices of the Company. ~~In general,~~ The Company will cooperate in furnishing such information documents to the Guild by mail or telephone, facsimile, email, or other electronic means in a timely fashion, generally within ten (10) business days when doing so is not unreasonable or burdensome.

1. The confidentiality provisions of Article 53.B. shall apply.
2. The Company agrees that the Guild and its representatives may retain copies of such documents and records until any matters related to the request for documents are resolved.
3. Where the Guild requests an audit, the Company will provide audit access within sixty (60) days of the request; thereafter, the Company shall respond to auditor inquiries and requests for documents and records in a timely fashion, generally within ten (10) business days.

Make conforming changes as needed.