PART 1
GENERAL INFORMATION

Item No. Item Description

- 1.1 The Board of Directors of the Writers Guild of America, West, Inc. (WGAW) at its meeting on November 30, 1998, adopted the policy regarding "Financial Core Status" (FSC) as it applies to WGAW members who take "Financial Core Status" and to employees required to meet WGAW obligations under the union security clauses of Writers Guild of America agreements where such union security clauses are lawful.
- 1.2 The following rules and policies will be followed by the WGAW in the matter of FCS non-members of the WGAW.

POLICY STATEMENT

PART 2
FINANCIAL CORE STATUS NON-MEMBERSHIP IN THE WGAW

Item No. Item Description

- 2.1 The term Financial Core Status (FCS) refers to a person who works under a collective bargaining agreement between the WGAW and one or more production companies, and who declines membership in the WGAW.
- 2.2 FCS non-membership includes the following:
- (a) a member of the WGAW who resigns and takes such FCS non-membership, or
  - (b) A person obligated to pay initiation fees and dues upon obtaining sufficient employment under a union security provision of a WGA agreement where such provisions are lawful, and who elects not to become a member of the WGAW although qualified to join as a Current member under the WGAW’s Constitution.
- 2.3 Any person working under a collective bargaining agreement as defined in 2.1 above or any person as defined in 2.2 above has the right to become or remain a FCS non-member.
- 2.4 FCS non-members have the right to object to paying for WGAW activities which have been held not to be germane to the union’s duties as a bargaining agent and to obtain a pro rata reduction in dues corresponding to the expenses associated with non-germane activities.
- 2.5 As provided in Part 3 et seq., FCS non-members have the right to be given sufficient information to enable them to intelligently decide whether to object (i.e., elect FCS), and to be apprised of any internal union procedures for filing objections.

NON-MEMBER “FINANCIAL CORE STATUS”
POLICY STATEMENT

PART 3
NOTICE OF THE RIGHT TO OBJECT

Item No. Item Description

- 3.1 Any person electing Financial Core Status (FCS) non-membership must notify the WGAW of his or her decision by filing a Notice of Objection in writing addressed to:

Don Gor, Chief Financial Officer
Writers Guild of America, West, Inc.
7000 West Third Street
Los Angeles, CA 90048

- 3.2 When perfected, the Notice of Objection is irrevocable.
- 3.3 In order to be valid, the Notice of Objection must be postmarked during ONE of the following periods:
- (a) For members, on or before July 31 for the upcoming fiscal year,
  - (b) For non-members, during the thirty (30) day period following receipt of the “Notice to Writers Guild of America, West, Inc. Dues Payers.”

PART 4
REPRESENTATION RIGHTS

Item No. Item Description

- 4.1 A Financial Core Status (FCS) non-member shall be deemed to have resigned from membership in the WGAW. By resignation, such person has no rights of membership (as distinguished from employment rights under a collective bargaining agreement).
- 4.2 Specifically, a FCS non-member dues payer is NOT entitled to membership rights in the Guild, such as the right to:
- (a) Compete for and receive Writers Guild Awards
  - (b) Attend membership meetings or any other WGAW events for professional writers
  - (c) Vote on changes in the credits system
  - (d) Run for WGAW office
  - (e) Vote in WGAW elections
  - (f) Participate in the formation of WGAW bargaining proposals
  - (g) Vote to ratify or not ratify WGA bargaining agreements
  - (h) Access the Members Only section of the WGAW website
  - (i) Use the Guild script registration service at the members' rate
  - (j) Join the WGAW's Film Society
  - (k) Serve on WGAW committees
  - (l) Exercise or enjoy any other rights or privileges of WGAW membership unrelated to the negotiation and administration of collective bargaining agreements (i.e., Strike Loan, Good & Welfare Loan, and other WGAW assistance programs)
- 4.3 As long as the FCS non-member continues to pay his or her financial obligations to the WGAW, he or she shall have the right to continue employment and to be represented by the WGAW under an applicable collective bargaining agreement in the same manner as a WGAW member.
- 4.4 THE WGAW WILL CONSIDER A PERSON'S DECISION TO ELECT FCS NON-MEMBERSHIP IRREVOCABLE. THIS IS SO WHETHER A PERSON MAKES THIS DECISION UPON FIRST BECOMING ELIGIBLE TO JOIN THE WGAW, OR AT A LATER TIME THROUGH RESIGNATION.

PART 5
FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

Item No. Item Description

- 5.1 A Financial Core Status (FCS) non-member is obligated to pay that share of WGAW dues that are chargeable for WGAW administration and collective bargaining or employment-related interests of employees represented by the WGAW.
- 5.2 An FCS non-member shall deliver a complete and accurate declaration of earnings to the WGAW within thirty (30) days after the WGAW sends a declaration form to the non-member.
- 5.3 A bookkeeping fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per quarter shall be charged for each quarter in which a FCS non-member does not file a declaration of earnings.
- 5.4 A FCS non-member shall be considered in arrears if the non-member (a) does not pay an initiation fee; (b) fails to file a complete and accurate declaration of earnings as set forth above; or (c) does not pay dues or a bookkeeping fee.
- 5.5 If an FCS non-member fails to meet his/her financial obligations to the WGAW, the WGAW may exercise its right to seek termination of the FCS non-member’s employment under the provision of the relevant collective bargaining agreement.
- 5.6 An FCS non-member shall be reinstated to active status upon the payment of the FCS non-member’s outstanding balance of unpaid initiation fee, dues and bookkeeping fees.

REPORT

Item No. Item Description

- 7.1 At the end of each fiscal year, the WGAW shall calculate which expenditures are for germane activities (chargeable) and non-germane (not chargeable) to Financial Core Status (FCS) non-members.
- 7.2 Upon the recommendation of the Membership and Finance Committee, the WGAW Board of Directors may request an audit of the WGAW’s accounting records, maintained by the WGAW Secretary-Treasurer, to determine the expenditures incurred in the prior fiscal year which are chargeable and non-chargeable to FCS non-members.
- 7.3 The report with or without an audit shall be completed and available upon request from the WGAW Secretary-Treasurer. A summary of this report and the Notice to WGAW Dues Payers may be included in the WGAW Annual Report.
- 7.4 The WGAW shall furnish a “Notice To Writers Guild of America, West, Inc. Dues Payers” to the following persons:
- (a) All members;
  - (b) All FCS non-members;
  - (c) All new members upon WGAW verification of their qualification for dues paying membership.

PART 8
NOTICE OF CHALLENGE

Item No. Item Description

- 8.1 A Financial Core Status (FCS) non-member who wishes to challenge the calculation of chargeable and non-chargeable expenditures must inform the WGAW Secretary-Treasurer in writing within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of the report as set forth in PART 7 of this policy statement. The written challenge must include the challenger’s name, address, social security number and phone number.
- 8.2 Any Notice of Challenge must be made ANNUALLY and if valid, the Notice will be effective for a single fiscal year (April 1 – March 31).
- 8.3 All written challenges shall be sent by U.S. mail to the following address:
- Don Gor, Chief Financial Officer
Writers Guild of America, West, Inc.
7000 West Third Street
Los Angeles, CA 90048
- 8.4 If the WGAW does not agree with the challenge either as to the expenditures or as to the percentage amount of dues to be paid, then the WGAW will notify the objecting FCS non-member in writing that he or she has ten (10) days to request arbitration and that if he or she fails to do so by a certified written notice within that time, then such person waives his or her rights to arbitration. In a case of waiver, the WGAW’s calculation shall stand.

PART 9
ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

Item No. Item Description

- 9.1 After the close of the challenge period, the WGAW Secretary-Treasurer shall provide a list of challengers to the American Arbitration Association (AAA). All challenges shall be consolidated. The AAA shall appoint an arbitrator from a special panel maintained by the AAA for this purpose. The AAA shall inform the WGAW Secretary-Treasurer and the appellants of the arbitrator selected.
- 9.2 The arbitration shall be scheduled expeditiously. The AAA has developed rules that govern these arbitrations, and, conscious of the need for an informed and expeditious decision, the arbitrator shall have control over all procedural matters affecting the arbitration.
- 9.3 Each party to the arbitration shall bear its own costs and attorneys' fees. The challenger shall have the option of paying a pro rata portion of the costs of the arbitrator's fee and expenses. The WGAW shall pay the balance of such fees and expenses.
- 9.4 A court reporter shall make a transcript of all proceedings before the arbitrator. This transcript shall be the official record of the proceedings and may be purchased by the challengers. If a challenger does not purchase a copy of the transcript, the WGAW shall make a copy available for inspection.
- 9.5 A challenger may, at his or her own expense, be represented by counsel or other representative of his or her choice. The challenger need not appear at the hearing and shall be permitted to file written statements with the arbitrator in lieu of a personal appearance. Such statements shall be filed no later than five (5) days before the opening of any hearings before the arbitrator.
- 9.6 The WGAW shall have the burden of establishing that the reduced dues charged are lawful.
- 9.7 If the arbitrator determines that more than one (1) day of hearing is necessary, he or she shall, to the extent possible, schedule the hearing to continue from day to day until completed. The WGAW and each challenger shall have the right to file a brief within fifteen (15) days after the hearing ends. The arbitrator shall issue a decision with thirty (30) days after the submission of post-hearing briefs, or within such other reasonable period as is consistent with the rules established by the AAA.
- 9.8 The arbitrator shall give full consideration to the legal requirements limiting the amounts that objectors may be charged, and shall set forth in his or her decision the legal and arithmetic basis for the decision.
