The undersigned are aware that, pursuant to the provisions of the Theatrical and Television Basic Agreement and the Television Credits Manual a Production Executive* writer is prohibited from sharing credit with Non-production Executive writer where the two writers have written in collaboration.

The undersigned are advised that the Board has agreed on a temporary basis to permit a joint credit to be accorded a Production Executive writer and a Non-production Executive if they so mutually agree and provided that the two writers:

Agree that the Non-production Executive shall receive from the Company, as initial compensation for said writing services, the full scale applicable to the resulting material which shall not be less than one-half of the applicable minimum plus $250.00 in the case of a 30-minute program, or $500.00 in the case of a 60-minute program;

3. Warrant that the collaboration will be bona fide and will be "head-to-head," that is, the two writers will, in fact, write together at the same time with the result that there will be no separable material, and they will be credited as a team, with an ampersand (&) between their names; and

In addition, the Production Executive writer will pay as a fine to the Guild a sum equal to the monies s/he would otherwise have received as residuals for the assignment(s) in question.

   b. If the Certificate of Compliance contains any false statement, the Non-production Executive writer will forfeit to the Guild any residuals s/he otherwise would have received for the assignment(s) in question.

Accordingly, the undersigned hereby makes application to collaborate as a bona fide team on the above-referenced program(s) and, as a condition to receiving a joint credit, agree to comply with items 2, 3 and 4 above.
